

Nikolai Nadirashvili (CNRS Laboratoire d'Analyse, Topologie, Probabilités,
Centre de Mathématiques et Informatique, Université de Provence, Marseille, France)

Singular solutions to fully nonlinear elliptic equations

Abstract: Recently it was discovered that viscosity (weak) solutions of fully nonlinear elliptic equations can have a singularity, even if the equation is smooth and uniformly elliptic. We discuss what kinds of singularities can have various types of equations.